Excellence in Social Outcomes

Entrants should demonstrate beneficial, measurable, and enduring outcomes for people achieved by the initiative, innovation or approach – whether that be the local community, specific stakeholder groups, indigenous peoples or the project workforce. External stakeholder involvement, supplier products or partnerships with others to achieve these outcomes should be highlighted.

Eligibility Criteria

The initiative, innovation, or approach must have been implemented in a project that is registered for or has achieved an Infrastructure Sustainability Council Rating (IS Rating).

All organisations applying for an award must be a current member of Infrastructure Sustainability Council.

Entrants must provide full disclosure of any fines or prosecutions or safety incidents in the last three years, not limited to the project your submission applies to. It will be at the Infrastructure Sustainability Council's complete discretion to determine whether the application can be accepted based on the disclosure information provided.

The outcomes must have been achieved between 1 July 2023 and 30 June 2024.
